Stop & Shop Presenting Project Particulars

Detailed Plans, Timeframe Have Some Thinking Supermarket-Pharmacy-Retail Store Project Is For Real

By Matt McDonald

After months of uncertainty locally about the proposed Stop & Shop project, consultants talked specifics with the town's Planning Board last week, a sign some observers are taking as evidence the company is serious about building in Norfolk.

Company consultants presented plans for a 55,120-square-foot supermarket, a pharmacy in the neighborhood of 14,490 square feet, and a building pad for a smaller retail store as part of Norfolk Commons, a commercial development in Norfolk
